

Teaching School-wide Expectations Behavior Lesson Plan

School-wide Expectation #2: Be responsible for yourself

Definition of expectation:
Being responsible means that you consider the consequences of your actions before you act as well as after you have acted. It means making the best choices for yourself and those around you. It means taking ownership for your decisions and your behaviors.
Rationale for having this expectation
Students are less likely to act out if they think of the consequences before engaging in any negative behavior.
Positive examples: "looks like"	Non-examples
Demonstrates self-control	Acting impulsively
Being an active learner	Using cell phone in classroom
Following the school's rules	Horseplay in the hallway
Being present, on time, and prepared	Being tardy or skipping
List 2 resources (websites, curriculum, programs, etc.) you will use to teach this lesson plan. Be specific enough so the resources can be located by anyone.
1. Character.org - http://character.org/lessons/lesson-plans/high/boys-town-high-school/
2. Got Milk? ad campaign success - http://www.inc.com/issie-lapowsky/marketing-tips-got-milk.html
List the steps of this lesson plan (Include lesson format, activities, and materials). Be detailed enough so the lesson can be implemented by anyone.
1. Introduce the idea of marketing to students. Review the "Got Milk?" campaign and 5 marketing tips.
2. Tell students that they will become ad campaign managers – marketing "responsibility".
3. Students can choose their own form and expression of media. Students will develop their marketing campaigns in small groups.
4. Campaigns will be presented to other classrooms and will be displayed for a week. Other students will vote on the "best" marketing campaign that convinces them it is in their own best interest to be responsible.
5. Winners of the marketing campaign will receive a "manager's luncheon" – free pizza for their team and one "associate" each, sponsored by our PTSA.

2 http://www.teaching4real.com/2012/07/theres-rules.html. The Dice Game.
List the steps of this lesson plan (Include lesson format, activities, and materials). Be detailed enough so the lesson can be implemented by anyone.
1. Play the Dice Game with students. Introduce the rationale for rules.
2. Ask students scenario questions: What would happen if we had no rules? Why do you think students need to be quiet in the front office? What would happen if it was really noisy? Why can't students go behind the counter? Why can't you wear sunglasses in the front office? Why can't you text with no sound on in the front office? What is the purpose for a paper pass?
3. Explain specific rules for the front office.
4. Check for understanding (immediately, in 2 weeks, first month, and throughout year). Use a formative assessment such as Q &amp; A.
5. Reinforcement activity: Create blank chart of Rules, Positive Example, and Non-example (above) for Front Office and have students fill in the empty squares.
WHEN will this lesson plan be taught?
Beginning of school year date(s) and time(s):	Introduce Aug. 23, 2017 Reinforcement activity: Aug 24, 2017 Check for understanding: Sept 8, 2017, Oct 12, 2017, Jan 13, 2018
After long holidays	Use your quarterly team meetings to not only review and analyze your behavior data, but to plan and develop additional lesson plans you will use throughout the year to re-teach and reinforce this location's rules.
